Proposed Response

Dear Sir/Madam,

Thank you very much for reaching out to us regarding GSA representation services for Japan Airlines across European markets. We are truly honored by your interest, and I must say, this is an incredibly exciting opportunity for both our organizations.

Japan Airlines' outstanding reputation — most recently underscored by the prestigious SKYTRAX 'WORLD CLASS 2024' rating — along with your robust network of 21 weekly frequencies into Frankfurt, Paris, and London, makes JAL an exceptional partner for European market development.

Our company specializes in precisely the services you have outlined, and we have extensive experience supporting leading carriers across multiple European territories. Allow me to briefly highlight how we can support your expansion strategy:

**Comprehensive GSA Representation:** We operate dedicated teams across key European markets with deep local expertise, established trade relationships, and proven track records in airline representation. Our coverage extends beyond the gateway cities of Frankfurt, Paris, and London to secondary and tertiary markets where significant untapped demand exists.

**Ticketing & Revenue Support:** Our teams provide full ticketing support including fare filing assistance, interline/codeshare coordination, and real-time sales monitoring to maximize revenue performance across all cabin classes.

**B2B Sales Development:** We maintain strong relationships with corporate travel managers, TMCs, consolidators, and tour operators across Europe. We would develop a targeted B2B sales strategy aligned with JAL's premium positioning and route-specific objectives, ensuring both corporate and leisure segments are effectively cultivated.

**Marketing Campaigns:** Our in-house marketing teams design and execute multi-channel campaigns — including trade events, digital marketing, co-op promotions with trade partners, and PR initiatives — tailored to each local market to drive brand awareness and booking conversions.

I would welcome the opportunity to schedule a detailed presentation where we can walk your team through our capabilities, share relevant case studies, and discuss a customized service proposal aligned with JAL's European growth ambitions.

Would you be available for a virtual meeting in the coming week? Please let me know your preferred dates and times, and I will coordinate accordingly.

Thank you once again for considering us as a potential partner. We look forward to the possibility of contributing to Japan Airlines' continued success in Europe.

Warm regards

Recommended Actions

- Schedule a virtual introductory meeting with the JAL team within the next 5-7 business days to present our capabilities and discuss their specific requirements in detail
- Prepare a customized proposal and presentation including European market analysis, relevant airline case studies, proposed team structure, and service scope for each requested market
- Coordinate internally with our country managers in Germany, France, and the UK to compile current market intelligence, trade partner networks, and resource availability for supporting JAL's operations
