Proposed Response

Dear Sir/Madam,

Thank you very much for reaching out to us on behalf of Japan Airlines. We are truly honored by your interest and excited about the prospect of supporting JAL's European expansion strategy. Japan Airlines' outstanding reputation — most recently underscored by the prestigious SKYTRAX 'World Class 2024' rating — makes this an exceptional opportunity for collaboration.

We have extensive experience providing comprehensive GSA representation services for leading international carriers across European markets, and we are well-positioned to support JAL's operations and growth ambitions in Frankfurt, Paris, London, and beyond. Specifically, our service portfolio covers the following areas relevant to your requirements:

- Ticketing & Reservations Support: End-to-end ground ticketing operations, GDS management, and customer service support tailored to each local market.
- B2B Sales Development: Dedicated sales teams with deep relationships across travel agencies, corporate travel managers, TMCs, and consolidators in key European markets. We would develop a structured trade engagement plan to drive revenue growth across your 21 weekly frequencies and identify opportunities for expanded distribution.
- Marketing Campaigns: Localized marketing strategies including trade promotions, co-op campaigns, digital marketing, travel trade events, and roadshows designed to elevate JAL's brand visibility and drive bookings across the European market.
- Market Intelligence: Regular reporting on market trends, competitor activity, and performance analytics to inform JAL's strategic decision-making for European route development.

Given JAL's diverse target segments — spanning premium cabin travelers, leisure markets, and corporate accounts — we would propose a tailored representation model for each European market, ensuring alignment with JAL's brand standards and commercial objectives.

I would welcome the opportunity to schedule a call or video meeting at your earliest convenience to discuss your specific requirements in greater detail and present a customized proposal. Please let me know your availability, and I will be happy to coordinate.

Thank you once again for considering our services. We look forward to the possibility of becoming a trusted partner in JAL's continued European success.

Warm regards

Recommended Actions

- Prepare a detailed, market-by-market capability presentation covering our GSA services in Germany, France, and the UK, including team structures, existing airline client references, and case studies
- Schedule an introductory call or video meeting with the JAL representative to understand specific KPIs, budget parameters, and timeline expectations for the European expansion strategy
- Develop a customized commercial proposal with tiered service options, including pricing models, SLA commitments, and a 90-day onboarding plan for each European market
